Dear Amber and Shawna:

We attempted to contact Ms. Luczak this afternoon to discuss her request for the retention of outside legal counsel. Ms. Luczak indicated she did not have time to discuss the matter today (or tomorrow), as she was the only one in the office. She indicated that Monday or Tuesday morning would be a better time for her, and I informed her I would attempt to call her Monday morning.

However, I received a return call from Ms. Luczak just a moment ago, and she further indicated that – should a Supreme Court decision be issued – she would expect her office would be very busy on Monday. She would prefer to discuss the matter with us after the holiday. She further indicated she had matters to discuss with corporation counsel prior to having a conversation with us.

As such, I will make a note to attempt to contact her on July 6th. Obviously, this will affect our ability to render an opinion to you by that date. Please let me know if you have any concerns in that regard.
